Research Interests

My research interests are in the field of distributed computer systems, with a focus on the execution of data stream applications in a geographically distributed environment. Currently, I am investigating the QoS-aware deployment problem for self-adaptive and distributed data stream processing systems.

Since 2015, I have co-authored more than 20 papers in peer-reviewed international journals, book chapters, and conference proceedings. Two of these publications have received paper awards.

According to Google Scholar, in November 2017 there are more than 90 citations of all the articles that I co-authored, with a h-index equal to 5.
